

Background Information on Linaka Joy NLP Master Practitioner, Changework Facilitator & Coach

Linda, also called Linaka Joy, has lived and worked in the central Texas area for almost 30 years. Her adventuresome nature has led her to travel to sacred sites and amazing places – from Alaska to Arizona, Mexico to Maui, and to the high Andes in Peru. Her current role as Executrix of JoyTech, an enterprise focused on activating Joy in the world, keeps her focused on NLP changework, 'Technology of Joy' coaching, writing, and designing or conducting ceremonies to mark and celebrate key life moments and transitions.

Linaka delights in serving as a Master Practitioner of Neuro Linguistic Programming, NLP. For over 23 years, she has played many roles within the universe of NLP - coach, consultant, training assistant, writer, process designer and presenter. She also serves as the organizer for the NLP San Antonio meetup group, which gathers each first Thursday or third Wednesday at 7 pm at the Center for Life in north San Antonio [Details @ <http://www.meetup.com/nlpsanantonio>.]

She continues to work with Bobbi Best of Best Resources / Texas Institute of NLP, having played a number of roles with this international training company since 1989. Linda also coordinates new programs from the NLP Women's Center and facilitates VISIBLE WOMEN, an NLP based empowerment program for girls, teens and women.

As a facilitator for Excellence, she enjoys assisting others in realizing their full potential as they gracefully and easily release limitations and fears. Through NLP and other healing modalities, Linaka offers a diverse mix of practical tools to fully activate your own unique resources and potential. Her eclectic approach encompasses wisdom from many sources – NLP from basics to evolutionary, Q'ero and Andean cosmology from Peru, the Huna teachings from Hawaii, and Native American traditions, among others.

She has been blessed to feast alongside masters, guides, teachers and friends of many distinctive and delicious flavors. Along the way, she also gathered expertise and certifications as a Mediator for the State of Texas, an Accelerated Learning instructor and designer, plus a R.O.P.E.S. course facilitator. She is dedicated to discovering what works, whatever principles or processes are most effective in bringing you to J-O-Y !!

"Linda radiates natural gifts, whether she is serving as an NLP counselor, a consultant, or a ceremony designer. She has great skills at helping others grow; a fierce willingness to do whatever works; the ability to connect with the flow of Life; an amazing sense of wonder which she utilizes so ably when creating sacred space and sacred rituals; and a spirit of deep Love.

K. Fail, Performance Consultant, NLP Trainer & Coach

"When I first met Linaka, I was skilled at creating states of confusion, depression, and fear. She modeled for me states of clarity, joy, and courage, and then facilitated my learning how to shift from unresourceful states to resourceful ones for myself. I was 'foggy' and she asked penetrating questions that brought the clear knowing that the same fire that burns at the core of the Universe burns in me. The fog cleared. Once again, she modeled how to ask those core questions - how to clear the fog myself."
